WHEN MOTHER CANS.

I traveled to the village, Nell, and saw your mother dear:
Her arms were stained with jam and juice, her sleeves rolled up to here.
The cookstove rumbled like it was mad, the room was full of heat.
And Jimmie's face was smeared with jelly and apple butter sweet.
A dozen jars were on the stove, their contents bubbling o'er.
And there were apples on the beds and peaches on the floor;
And when I walked into the house I slipped upon a pear,
And sitting down, I smashed a big tomato in the chair.
She took an inventory, Nell: Two hundred jars of jam,
One hundred cans of Bartlett pears, and catchup (that's for Sam);
Twelve dozen jars of marmalade of several different kinds,
And twenty tubs of peach preserves and water-melon rinds.
And grapes and quinces, berries, plums and apples—lots or more;
The pantry shelves are loaded down, the cellar running o'er.
But go and get your cook-book, dear, for thus she spoke: "O course,
I want to get Nell's new receipt for making 'em bill sore!"

MR. CHARLES O. HOFFMAN.

Mr. Charles O. Hoffman, one of the best known and most popular life insurance men in Louisville, died yesterday morning at his home in Crescent Hill. He had been in bad health for about five months, but his illness was not thought to be of a serious nature and the end was unexpected.

Mr. Hoffman was 60 years old and had lived in Louisville all his life.

He was connected with the Mutual Life of Kentucky from the time of its organization until it was sold to the Illinois Life, being State Agent. After the sale of his old Company he went with the Mutual Life of New York as Special Agent, which position he held at the time of his death.

He was married thirty-five years ago to Miss Hettie Spalding, daughter of the late Dan Spalding, formerly of Maysville. Mrs. Hoffman and three daughters survive him. The daughters are Mrs. John R. Winstanley and Mrs. W. T. Winstanley of Louisville and Mrs. H. F. Williams of Covington.

Mr. Hoffman is well known in Maysville, and his death will be learned with the deepest regret.

MRS. LAURA C. DIMMITT.

Mrs. Dimmitt was subject to heart failure and had suffered several attacks, but one of several days ago proved more severe and she succumbed last evening.

The death of Mrs. Dimmitt will be mourned by many outside her circle of relatives. She was a noble, cultured woman of a disposition to make and retain friends in her daily life.

Mrs. Dimmitt was 65 years of age and was a native of Louisville.

She was a daughter of John S. Chenoweth and leaves surviving two brothers, Major Thomas J. Chenoweth of this city and Mr. Henry P. Chenoweth of Birmingham, Ala., and one sister, Mrs. Julia Gilman of St. Paul, Minn.

She had been twice married, her first husband the late John Everett of Mt. Sterling, whose death occurred at Bristol, Tenn., during the War.

Her second husband was Dr. Addison Dimmitt of Louisville.

Mrs. Dimmitt is survived by three children, Mr. John C. Everett of this city, Miss Etta R. Everett of Cincinnati and Mr. Addison Dimmitt of Louisville.

Her remains will be brought to Maysville this evening and taken to the residence of Mr. Everett in West Third.

The funeral occurs from that place Monday morning at 10 o'clock, the Rev. Dr. C. F. Evans of the First M. E. Church, South, conducting the services, and the interment following in Maysville Cemetery.

DEFINING THE DIFFERENCE!

How a Witness Answered the Democratic Candidate For Senator.

Lawyers sometimes, but not too often, meet their superiors when they try to belittle or bulldoze a witness.

Years ago, when Mr. L. W. Robertson, the present Democratic candidate for State Senator was in the glowing period of his legal experience, he bumped up against a proposition that he long remembered—and probably hasn't forgotten yet.

It was a damage suit, and on the one side was the late Hon. William H. Wadsworth, while Mr. Robertson was trying to hold up the other end of the log.

For short, we'll call the witness Jo. Ball.

He was an amateur surveyor, and at the request of the Attorneys on his side he had made a number of measurements relating to a certain limb on a tree at the scene of the accident which caused the suit.

Jo. was placed on the stand, testified in chief, and was then taken in hand by Mr. Robertson for cross-examination.

After detailing with nice precision a number of distances which he had measured, he was asked by Mr. Robertson—

"Jo., that was a very conspicuous limb, wasn't it?"

"Oh, I dunno," drawled Jo.

"Well, Mr. Ball, it was a prominent limb?"

"Yes; I think it was."

"Now, then, Mr. Ball, I would like to have you tell this Jury the difference between a conspicuous limb and a prominent limb?"

"Well, sir," responded Jo., "I don't know how I can better illustrate the difference than by applying it to yourself. You are a very conspicuous lawyer but you are not a very prominent lawyer."

Mr. Wadsworth nearly fell under the table, the Jury joined in the laugh of the Bar and the audience, and even the sedate Judge coughed up a forty cent smile, while the discomfited young Attorney had all the earmarks of an uncurrent nickel.

Mr. Robertson can tell this story to the Horae Marinos when he takes a Senatorial saunter along the banks of Benson.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Jake Groninger of West Second street, a daughter.

Mrs. L. V. Davis is now prepared for the fall trade with a choice line of Millinery, and confidently invites an inspection of correct styles.

Never compare prices without comparing quality; you will find more difference in quality than you will in price. See our monuments and markers before buying elsewhere. MURRAY & THOMAS.

He Learned a Great Truth.

It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Westley: "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" John Wesley, because once telling is not enough. It is for this same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. LIZZIE EVANS IN "AT COZY CORNERS."

"At Cozy Corners" with the charming little actress, Miss Lizzie Evans, and her splendid company will be seen at Washington Opera-house Saturday, October 10th. Miss Evans impersonates "Claudine," a beautiful young violinist who seeks rest in the little village of Cozy Corners, Mass. The male citizens of the town lose their hearts outright to her and the jealousy of the spinsters is further inflamed by the rustle of her silken petticoats. Pretty costumes, effective scenery, quaint town characters, a crowd of school children, etc., and the "Cozy Corners" Quartette of boys, are among the features of one of the best plays offered this season and is a guaranteed attraction.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectoration in the morning is made certain by German Syrup; so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At Henry W. Rye's, next door to Postoffice.

$100—Reward—$100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O., Sold by Druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
To Be Voted On at the November Election.

CHAPTER 50.

An act to provide for an amendment to Section 181 of the Constitution of Kentucky.

"The General Assembly may, by general laws only, authorize CITIES OR TOWNS OF ANY CLASS to provide for taxation for municipal purposes, on personal property, tangible and intangible, based on income, licenses or franchises, in lieu of an ad valorem tax thereon;

"Provided, cities of the first class shall not be authorized to omit the imposition of an ad valorem tax on such property of any steam railroad, street railway, ferry, bridge, gas, water, heating, telephone, telegraph, electric light or electric power company."

Do Good—It Pays.

A Chicago man has observed that "Good deeds are better than real estate deeds—some of the latter are worthless. Act kindly and gently, show sympathy and lend a helping hand. You cannot possibly lose by it." Most men appreciate a kind word and encouragement more than substantial help. There are persons in this community who might truthfully say: "My good friend, cheer up. A few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will rid you of your cold, and there is no danger what-so-ever of pneumonia when you use that medicine. It always cures. I know it, for it has helped me many a time." Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

River News

The guano reads S.S at this point and falling.
The new United States Snagboat Theo. Schwan is now in commission.

Charles Barnes & Co. have closed a contract with the Thomas J. Hall Company to build them a large pumpboat to pump sand out of the river onto dock barges.

The Wiggins Ferry Company at St. Louis is planning for the building of another transfer boat, also another steel-hull ferryboat similar to the Andy Crispy.

Twelve Government barges, two coalhulls for St. Louis and three model barges for the Barnett Line are being built at the Barrett boat and barge building plant at Levensna.

There are only a few small towboats moving now on the Ohio between Pittsburgh and Cairo, while nearly a hundred are tied up with empties between these points, awaiting water to proceed North.

Captain S. R. Elkins, a veteran riverman, who has lived at Ironton since his retirement many years ago, was stricken with an attack of apoplexy Tuesday. His condition is pronounced as serious.

Work on decorating the cabins of the Queen City and Virginia, of the Cincinnati and Pittsburgh Packet Line, was begun Tuesday. It is said the work will surpass anything in the latter days of the steamboat business.

James Rees & Sons of Pittsburgh have three steel-hulled freight and passenger boats under contract, one each for Jamaica, Nicaragua and Mexico. The same firm has just completed the United States Snagboat Theo. Schwan and the towboat Clyde.

Captain Mart Sweeney died at St. Louis a few days ago. In 1864, while in command of the steamer Welcome, he ran through a deluge of shot and shell from General Morgan's shore batteries off Vicksburg and safely delivered a valuable cargo at New Orleans.

The Racket is aground near Evansville with barges of ties. She cannot get off.

Owing to the scarcity of water the Pomeroy and Maysville boats have gone to the bank, and the Lizzie Bay has been put in the Portsmouth trade. She will make three trips a week as long as the water holds.

The Wabash Valley Improvement Association will become a sub-organization of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association. The matter will come up at the Convention of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association in Evansville next month.

Captain Clayton Crawford, who for many years was in the employ of the Memphis Packet Company, and who last ran on the Sunshine in the Memphis trade, has taken command of the Henry M. Stanley. Captain Crawford replaced Captain C. R. Church, who will engage in business ashore.

No young man on the river is climbing the ladder of success faster and higher than Lorain Cartor, Assistant Engineer on the big Joe B. Williams. He commenced his career at the throttle on the Jeffersonville ferryboats and has been on many of the largest towboats before going on the "Big Joe B."

The Sprague left New Orleans Thursday night for Louisville with a record-breaking tow, consisting of six model barges and two square barges loaded with lumber and 36 empty coalboats. Her tow is considered equal to 56 empty coalboats. The biggest tow prior to this of the Sprague was that of the J. B. Finley, consisting of 28 empty coalboats.

The stage of water in the Ohio river and prospects for the future are being discussed by rivermen. The tributaries have no water to spare; both the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers are very low, and reports indicate that the Ohio is falling at all points above, threatening to put a stop to navigation between Cincinnati and Pomeroy, even with the lightest boats available. Already many of the smaller packets out of Cincinnati have gone to the bank, including the regular Pomeroy and Maysville boats. The Lizzie Bay has been transferred to the Portsmouth trade, to run three times a week until water becomes too low to navigate. Besides the low water making it impossible for boats to run on schedule time, they are further delayed by fog.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Stucky of Lexington on "The Value of the Y. M. C. A. to Maysville and Her Young Men." A very cordial invitation extended to all.

MR. DODSON DECLINES.

Thomas A. Davis, Editor Ledger—My Dear Sir: In your issue of 24 inst. my name is given as a possible candidate for Council. Again thanking you, I am very truly,

GRADUAL DECLINE
This is the fate of sufferers from Kidney trouble, as the disease is so insidious that often people have serious Kidney trouble without knowing the real cause of their illness, as diseased kidneys allow the impurities to stay in the system and attack the other organs. This accounts for the many different symptoms of Kidney Disease.
You begin to feel better at once when taking
as it stimulates the heart, increases the circulation and invigorates the whole system. It strengthens the urinary organs and gives you new life and vigor.
TWO SIZES 50c and $1.00
Chicago Business Man Cured
Foley & Co., Chicago, Gentlemen:—About a year ago my health began to fail, I lost flesh and never felt well. The doctor thought I had stomach and liver trouble, but I became convinced that my kidneys were the cause of my ill health and commenced taking FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. It increased my appetite and made me feel stronger, and the annoying symptoms disappeared. I am now sound and well.—J. K. Horn, 1354 Diversey Blvd., Chicago, June 11, 1902.
Cured His Wife
E. C. Watkins, sexton of the Methodist Church, Springfield, Pa., writes: "My wife has been very bad with kidney trouble and tried several doctors without benefit. After taking one bottle of FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE was much better, and was completely cured after taking four bottles."
One Bottle Cured Him
A. H. Davis, Mt. Sterling, Ia., writes: "I was troubled with kidney complaint for about two years, but a one-dollar bottle of FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE effected a permanent cure."

CHURCH RECEPTION.

Most Delightful Affair at Christian Church Last Evening.

One of the most pleasant Church receptions ever held in the city was that at the Christian Church last evening attended by the members of the congregation and of the Sunday-school. The hours were from 7 to 10, and in that time music, vocal and instrumental, recitations and social intercourse were enjoyed to the fullest. Mrs. C. E. Geisel presided at the piano, while Rev. R. E. Moss, Dr. P. G. Smoot and others delighted their hearers with fine selections. Prof. Mitchell recited "An Order For a Picture," and Mr. Moss was heard at his best in "That Old Sweetheart of Mine."

Light refreshments were served and the reception was all that was planned to be—a time given up for closer fellowship between the Pastor and the members of his congregation.

MISS FAY LEE,

President of the Shakespearian Club, Kansas City.

"Your booklet came to my home like a message of health when I had suffered with headache, backache and bearing-down pains. I was weak, nervous and hysterical and had not consulted any doctor, thinking it would pass away in time, but instead I found that the pains increased and were more frequent. I decided to try Wine of Cardui and in a short time was much improved. It seemed to act like a charm. I kept up the treatment and the result was most satisfactory. Words fail to express my gratitude for the suffering that is now saved me. I am in fine health, physically and mentally. I can only say 'thank you', but there is much more in my heart for you."

BEARING-DOWN pains are the worst that women know. If you are suffering from this trouble you need not be uncertain about it. The pains in the abdomen and back that feel as if heavy weights were pulling down on the nerves of the stomach are "bearing-down pains". They may not be particularly severe at present but they are growing worse. That headache which nearly drives you distracted now is caused by the terrible nervous tension. The nerves soon begin to give way under the strain. You perhaps jump at any unusual disturbance, or laugh or weep, hysterically, at no apparent cause. That is what Miss Fay Lee, 608 1/2 North Seventh Street, Kansas City, Kansas, was coming to when she rescued herself by taking Wine of Cardui. The Wine made her a strong, healthy woman again, as it has made a million other women strong and healthy. By inducing regular menstruation the entire system is relieved of the terrible wasting drains. The ligaments which hold the womb in place are strengthened by a healthy flow and that organ is returned to its normal position. Returning health is the result. This is what Wine of Cardui has done for thousands of the best women in America.

If you need advice write The Ladies' Advisory Department, The Chattanooga Medicine Company, Chattanooga, Tenn., describing all your symptoms freely, and a letter of advice will be sent you. Secure a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist to-day.

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.
